Philippians 2:14-16 Do everything without complaining or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe as you hold out the word of life in order that I may boast on the day of Christ

 God's Word Isaiah 9:6

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.⁷ Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

This day I will be still and allow the Lord Jesus to move in my life.
I will look to the Lord who guides and directs my life.
I will not allow anything or anybody to disturb my day.
I will have the peace of the Lord Jesus this day and every day.
I will be still, let go and let God move in my life.
I know with Jesus on my side everything's going to be alright.
Be at rest, walk quietly and let God move in your life.
Contemplate grace and let God work whatever it is out for you.
Peace . . . Be Still

A Symbol: The Jerusalem Cross ... This complex cross icon, also called the Crusader's Cross or Fivefold Cross, has several interpretations. The main cross is composed of four tau (T) crosses representing the Old Testament law. The four small Greek crosses symbolize the fulfillment of the law in the gospel. The five crosses together represent the church's mission: to spread the gospel to the four corners of the earth. They're also said to symbolize Christ's five wounds (hands, feet and side). Godfrey de Bouillon, the first ruler of Jerusalem after it was liberated from the Muslims, used the cross on his coat-of-arms. It was also embodied in the heraldry of the Crusaders.
